Gentlemen of the Convention—It is with feelings of sincere gratification that I meet with the representatives of the Anderson Democracy to-day.

Two years ago, at the beginning of the mosteventful political campaign ever known in the history of our State, I was placed by your partiality and kindness at the head of your serried hosts, who won such a magnificent victory by the peaceful agency of the ballot. I am here to-day to surrender into your hands the trust confided to me by your generosity, and it is simple candor to express my earnest thanks for the unmixed kindness, unlimited confidence and ready co-operation at all times accorded in the discharge of my delicate and responsible duties.

denounced all instigators and promoters thereof, and invoked all of our fellow-citizens, irrespective of party lines, to exercise forbearance and cultivate good-will. We pledged ourselves to protect the persons, rights and property of all the people. Upon this paramount issue, which involved the perpetuity of liberty and the preservation of Anglo Saxon civilization, we extended a cordial invitation to every Democrat and Republican who was willing to unite with us in this great work.

It was upon that line of policy, founded upon the principles of justice and conciliation, that redemption was made certain and the blessings of good government were secured. For one, I am fully persuaded that the platform of 1876 is the true one for the ensuing campaign. The pledges given by our platform and constituted exponents of the party are redeemed so far as it has been possible. I have been taught to believe the promises are sacred, and in my opinion the man who does not regard the pledges made in public affairs, when the exigency which called them forth has passed away, cannot claim that he truly represents a constituency with rectitude and honor. It is a part of my political creed, as it has always been the motive power in private life, to redeem my plighted word and sacredly observe its conditions. The work of redemption is not yet fully complete in South Carolina, either as regards the promised relief to the people from exacting burdens or in making secure beyond peradventure the rights and liberties of all. We must not look back to past issues, but-moving forward in the pathway of justice, moderation and strict integrity, place beyond contingency the future of our State.

who are now scheming for office and high station, professing with loud and lusty tongues that they only represent "the people."

Yes, gentlemen, we will abide by our pledges and promises. We will stand in vincible as a party upon the line of truth, justice and integrity, which cannot fall to work out the great blessings for which we have striven so long and carnestly. I cannot enforce this thought utore vigorously than by quoting the words of our chosen leader when he accepted the nomination for Governor. It was then that Hampton made this utterance, which has become historic: "I shall be the Governor of the whole people, making no vindictive discrimination, including the scales of justice with firm and impartial hand, seeing, as far as in me lies, that the laws are enforced in justice tempered by mercy, protecting all classes alike, and devoting every effort to the restoration of prosperity and the re-establishment of honest government."

There are honest differences of opinion on questions of great magnitude. I respect those who differ with me conscientiously, and claim from them a due regard for my own conclusions. But these differences need no? and must not be permitted to break our solid array of strength as a party. Let the people determine in their primary meetings that the promotion of every man shall be subordinated to the common aim and object of this organization, which is to secure the perpetuation of honest government and prevent a repetition of the evils from which all classes have suffered so intensely. The civilized world stands aghast at the recent revelations of the corruption, the thievery and the bold, unscrupulcus briyandage of the Radical party in South Carolina. The best informed in our midst uteyer dreamed that this roguery extended to such enormous proportions. But the truth has been revealed, and it should admonish us to avoid every danger which points to the possible re-instatement of the representatives of such vensity and faud. In conclusion, gentlemen, let me invoke upon your couns sponse to the call for a speech, delivered the following address:

MY FELLOW-CITIZENS—I fully realize and gratefully appreciate the motives which prompt this compliment. While you may regret, and perhaps many of you may feel indignant at the result of the recent judicial election. I desire to assure you that this popular demonstration of your regard, sympathy and kind feeling towards me far, yea, infinitely, outweighs any supposed wrong done me by the State Legislature, and I cherish the hope that you will be able to reconcile yourselves to the belief that the General Assembly rejected my claims to re-election as your Circuit Judge, not from personal opposition, but was actuated by what it conceived to be the true interest of the whole State. I have aught to complain of against any member of the General Assembly, and I trust you will give them your confidence and warm support in their effort to serve the best interest of the State. They have many intricate problems to solve which demand the highest order of falent and great wisdom, and it is hardly possible for them to steer the old ship of State clear of the breakers ahead, and make no mistake. But let the waters be never so troubled, I shall remain aboard with the Democratic party until moored safely in the haven or rest nationally. [Applause.] My fellow-citizens, though defeated in the Legislature, I am more than compensated by the fact that, a generous and grateful people have given me their firm and almost unanimous support in the recent judicial elections, and it is proper that I should say that the Anderson delegation stood as a unit for my re-election. I would urge you as good Democrats to let there be no division among you. The work of redemption is not yet complete, and if you wpuld secure the achievements of the last camp ign you must stand shoulder to shoulder, presenting a solid front to the enemies of good government next fall. Constitutional government, the peace and tranquility to this great republic, depend upon the success of the Democratic ar My Fellow-Citizens-I fully realize neart for this manifestation of your kind re-ards. Mr. W. W. Keys offered the following preamble and resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Democratic party in South Carolina has succeeded to a great extent in relieving the people of the State of many of the burdens imposed upon them by the corrupt and thieving party who preceded them in authority; and whereas, we believe that the interests of the State demands the perpetuation of the Democratic party in power and control of the government, in order that the many measures of reform and retreachment so successfully instituted may be carried to completion, and that mutual good-will and confidence may be established between the races; and whereas, certain parties, claiming to represent the interests of the People of the County and State, are endeavoring, by misrepresentations of the principles and purposes of the Democracy of the State and County, to bring about a division in its ranks, thereby ensuring its defeat at the approaching election, and at the same time ensuring the success of a party whose chief aim and object in the past has been to oppress and override the property-holder and tax-payer of the State; and whereas, we recognize in the efforts of these malicious and designing parties actual danger to the unity of the party in the coming campaign; therefore be it were offered and adopted as the sense of the Club:

Wheneas, our State, from 1868 to 1876, was over-ridden by unprincipled corruptionists, the taxpayers denied a voice in the government, the rights of the people outraged, ignorance placed in commanding position, and the whole State carried rapidly to destruction; and, whereas, this mad career was only checked by the unparalleled uprising of the citizens, clothed with the mighty yet peachful weapon—the ballot—and with the onward cry of reform and retrenchment, sweeping down under appilling disadvantages the stronghold of corruption that was drinking the very life-blood of the State; and, whereas, the redemption of our country is yet only partial, the foe being prostrated but not entirely vanquished. Therefore be it trated but not enurely vanquished. Therefore be it * Resolved. J. B. CARPENTER, Sec

Physicians recommend Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup when all other medicines fail, as a certain cure for Bronchitis, Sore Throat, and Coughs or Colds of long standing. Fo. sale by all druggists.

The Supreme Court of the State of New York has decided that J. C. Ayer & Co., of Lowell, have the sole right to use the words CHERRY PECTORAL for a medicine, and has ssued an injunction against F. V. Rushton, of New York City, for selling Kashton's Cherry Pectoral or Cherry Pectoral Lozenges, or any other use of the name to dewive the public. This decision of the high court includes all dealers who sell any similar article .- Port Jefferson (L. I.) Leader.

We can change a fifty dollar bill if you want a bottle of Globe Flower Syrur, the greatest Cough and Lung Remedy in the world; or if you want to try it first and see if what the Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Ex-If what the Hon. Alex. H. Stephens, Excoor. Smith, Ex-Gov. Brown and Hon. Robert Toombs, of Georgia, say about it is true, you can get a Sample Bottle for ten cents at Simpson, Reid & Co's. Drug Store, that relieves an ordinary cold. The Globe Flower, Cough Syrdy never had an equal for Coughs, Colds and Lung Affections. It positively cures Consumption when all other boasted remedies fail. Sample Bottles, ten cents. Regular size, fifty doses, $1.00

A Gentle Hint.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingling in a single day—it is no wonder that carechildren, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of there or four doses. For curing Consumption, Hemogrhages, Prietmonia, Severt Coughs, Group or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial, 10c., regular size, 75c. A Gentle Hint.
